753.10 Companies Must File

753.20 Form and Content of Filings

753.30 Submission of Filing

EXHIBIT A Authorization to Accept Filings by Reference (Form RF-1)

AUTHORITY: Implementing Article VII A and authorized by Sections 401 and 143 of the Illinois Insurance Code (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1981, ch. 73, pars. 735A-1 et seq; 1013 and 755).

SOURCE: Filed May 20, 1977, effective June 1, 1977; codified at 6 Ill. Reg. 12459.

753.10 Companies Must File

- a) All companies writing any of the kinds of business enumerated in Class 2, except paragraphs (a), (d) and (g), and Class 3 of Section 4 of the Code must file:
 - 1) copies of all policy forms on these kinds of business.
 - 2) copies of generally used endorsement forms on these kinds of business.
 - 3) copies of all application forms used on these kinds of business.
- b) This filing requirement can be met by:
 - 1) a company making a direct filing on its own behalf; or
 - 2) a company making a reference filing on its own behalf by utilizing an advisory organization's Standard Provisions forms; or
 - 3) a company authorizing the advisory organization, of which it is a member or subscriber, to make the filing on the company's behalf.
- c) A company making a reference filing under b) 2) above must file in duplicate a Form RF-1. (See exhibit attached to this Rule). The RF-1 Form lists the kinds of business to be written and the corresponding advisory organization to which the reference is being made.
- d) A company authorizing its advisory organization to file on the company's behalf under b) 3) above must have on file a forms authorization letter, in duplicate, which includes:

- 1) the name of their authorized advisory organization.
 - 2) the kinds of business for which filings will be made.
 - 3) authorization clause or language.
 - 4) effective date of authorization.
- e) All filings must be accompanied by a forms submission letter, in duplicate, which includes:
- 1) the name of the advisory organization or company making the filing.
 - 2) title, form number, and edition identification of the forms.
 - 3) information as to what Class and Clause coverage is written under.
 - 4) identification of all applicable endorsements and applications as to the policy forms for which the endorsements and applications are used.
 - 5) notification as to whether the filing is new or supersedes a present filing. Identification of all changes in all superseding filing as well as identification of all superseded forms is required.
 - 6) effective date of use.
- f) Companies under the same ownership or general management are required to make separate individual company filings. Company Group filings are unacceptable.

753.20 Form and Content of Filings

- a) There must be printed at the head of the policy the name of the insurer or insurers issuing the policy, the location of the Home Office thereof; a statement of whether the insurer is a stock, mutual, reciprocal, Lloyds, alien insurer, or an insurer operating under a charter by Special Act of the Legislature of any state. There may be added thereto such devices, emblems or designs and dates as are appropriate for the insurer issuing the policy.
- b) In a policy in which contingent liability of members or subscribers is provided for, the provision therefor shall be plainly stated in each policy with prominence equal to the indemnifying clause. Any insurer may also print upon the policy such regulations or provisions as may be required by its home State or such as may be appropriate to or required by its form of organization or plan of operation. There may be substituted for the word "company" where it appears in the policy, another term more accurately descriptive of the insurer.
- c) All forms must be identified by a descriptive title, form number and edition identification.
- d) All changes from currently filed forms must be highlighted. Any changes not highlighted will not be deemed filed.
- e) Typed or printer's proof copies may be submitted for review, but must be refiled in printed form. Statements, provisions, or endorsements may not be typed or superimposed on a policy or endorsement.
- f) All forms must be printed in not less than eight-point type.

753.30 Submission of Filing

- a) All filing required in Section 753.10 above must be received no later than their effective date of use.
- b) All filings required in Section 753.10 above must be accompanied by a self-addressed stamped envelope.
- c) All filings required in Section 753.10 above must be received by:
