Illinois Department of Insurance Disciplinary Report for March 2013

CHICAGO - May 3, 2013. The Illinois Department of Insurance today announced the following disciplinary orders:

Rocio Cordero, Chicago - Insurance producer license application denial effective March 26, 2013. Ms. Cordero's application was denied pursuant to a Director's Order regarding Hearing No. 12-HR-0851. The denial was the result of an investigation which revealed she had been convicted of a felony (Resisting or Obstructing a Peace Officer) in July 2010. The Order also required Ms. Cordero to pay $265.90 in hearing costs.

Daniel E. Cunningham, Naperville - A Stipulation and Consent Order issued regarding the producer license effective August 7, 2012. Mr. Cunningham has been licensed to sell life, health, fire and casualty lines of insurance since 2008. The Order, which includes a $10,000 civil penalty and corrective orders, alleges Mr. Cunningham misappropriated premiums and had multiple Premium Fund Trust Account violations.

Terry Gaskill, Tampico - Insurance producer license revoked effective March 25, 2013. Mr. Gaskill, who accepted the Voluntary Revocation Order, had been licensed to sell life and health lines of insurance since 1990. Mr. Gaskill is no longer able to effect insurance transactions in the state, without violating Illinois Insurance Code and facing felony charges.

Lovely J. Johnson, Harvey - A Stipulation and Consent Order issued regarding the producer license effective December 4, 2012. Ms. Johnson has been licensed to sell life and health lines of insurance since 2006. The Order, which includes a $3,500 civil penalty and corrective orders, alleges that Ms. Johnson violated replacement regulations during the sale of life insurance policies to consumers.

Pedro Loera, Chicago - Insurance producer license suspension effective March 11, 2013. The license was suspended based on a certification from the Department of Healthcare and Family Services that Mr. Loera was more than 30 days delinquent in complying with a child support order. The suspension will remain in effect until Mr. Loera proves that he is not more than 30 days delinquent in paying his child support.

Alfred Longtin, New Lenox - Insurance producer license revoked effective March 26, 2013. Mr. Longtin, who accepted the Voluntary Revocation Order, had been licensed to sell life, health and variable lines of insurance since 2010. Mr. Longtin is no longer able to effect insurance transactions in the state, without violating Illinois Insurance Code and facing felony charges.

Herman Matthews, Chicago - Insurance producer license application denial effective March 19, 2013. Mr. Matthews' application was denied pursuant to a Director's Order regarding Hearing No. 12-HR-0541. The denial was the result of an investigation which revealed he had been convicted of seven felonies (Drug Convictions Related to Intent and Distribution) in 1998. The Order also required Mr. Matthews to pay $625.85 in hearing costs.

Marilyn Posley, Hazel Crest - A Director's Order issued regarding the revocation of Ms. Posley's producer license effective October 30, 2012. The Order, from Hearing No. 10-HR-1079, superseded a previously issued Order of Revocation to allow Ms. Posley's to maintain her license. The Order also required Ms. Posley to pay a $15,000 civil penalty and $760.05 in hearing costs.

Pierre D. Wilkens, Chicago - Insurance producer license revoked effective February 28, 2013. Mr. Wilkens had been licensed to sell life, health, fire and casualty lines of insurance since 2011. The license was revoked as a result of an investigation which revealed Mr. Wilkens was terminated by an insurer after allegations he misappropriated premiums. And he failed to facilitate and aid the Department in its investigation. The Order of Revocation also included a $2,000 civil penalty.
